

State Farm Insurance Companies® Retirement Plan for United States Employees Substitute State Withholding Certificate

Retirement Form #6

Whether your pension/annuity payments are subject to state tax withholding depends on the state in which you reside and the withholding elections you make. Please find your residence state and complete the form as directed. Additional states may be found on the reverse side of this page. If you make an election of any kind, you must complete the Personal Information section at the bottom of this form and return the form in its entirety.

Iowa residents only:

If Federal withholding is taken, state withholding should also be taken. If Federal withholding is not taken, you may still elect state withholding. A partial exemption is provided to qualified Iowa residents receiving pensions, annuities, self-employed retirement benefits, deferred compensation, and other retirement benefits. To qualify you must be 55 years of age or older, disabled or a surviving spouse or other survivor of an individual who would have qualified for the partial exemption in the tax year. To be considered disabled you must be receiving the retirement income on the basis of a documented disability or you must meet Federal or state criteria for disability. Social Security benefits are not covered by this exemption. If you are receiving retirement income from more than one source, you are still entitled to claim only a maximum $6,000/$12,000 exemption.

- No. I do not wish to have the applicable state income tax withheld from my distribution. If so, STOP here. Note: If the taxable portion of your annual distribution is greater than $6,000 ($12,000 married Iowa filers), Iowa tax must be withheld if Federal tax is being withheld.
- I choose to have Iowa income tax withheld from my distribution at a rate of 5%. Select one of the following:

- Claiming no exemptions
- Exempting $6,000 in benefits each year
